BABY MINE IS TRIUMPHANT

Easily Accounts for Border Cities Handicap at Devonshire.

Peace Pal and Mary Maxim in Tight Finish—Firebrand for Frontier Handicap.

DEVONSHIRE, Ont., July 6.—The Border Cities Handicap, which was featured at Devonshire this afternoon, resulted in an easy victory for Baby Mine, which races in the colors of the Sunnyside Stable. The conditions of this race called for Canadian-breds and it was a dash of one mile.

Baby Mine was ridden by Chalmers, followed along in the middle of the field until entering the homestretch, where she was taken to the outside and, finishing with a rush, drew away into a length's lead and won in a canter from Greybourne.

A large crowd turned out at Devonshire this afternoon. Racing conditions were ideal and speculation keen.

C. T. Worthington furnished the winner of the first race in Settle. The latter, a bit fractious at the post, left the barrier speedily and, going to the front the first sixteenth, was never headed. He had a couple of lengths to spare at the end.

The second race brought a well-matched field of two-year-olds to the post and it resulted in a rousing stretch finish, in which Water Girl came from behind and beat Ailsie Vernor by a scant half length. The latter was half a length in front of Miss Beulah, which beat Judge Hanecy by a head for third place.

Peace Pal, Mary Maxim and Theo fought it out from the top of the homestretch and the first named just managed to get up in the final stride to beat Mary Maxim by the smallest of margins. Theo quit at the end and North Wales wrested third place from her.

Reservations at the Windsor Jockey Club on Saturday, July 15, have been made for 200 Elks from Chicago, who are coming to Detroit that day with their band, headed by Exalted Ruler William J. Sinek.

Jefferson Livingston has wired secretary Walter O. Parmer for twelve stalls at the Windsor Jockey Club track. Mr. Livingston expects to start Firebrand in the $10,000 Frontier Handicap.

SAFEGUARDING THE SPORT.

The rule prohibiting the running of more than one horse in the same interests or trained by the same trainer in selling races will be strictly enforced. Owners and trainers are warned against fake transfer of horses. Those offending will be denied all privileges. The stewards will appreciate and regard as confidential any information from horsemen in regard to strange or unidentified horses and any offers from ruled off persons to take and race horses.

The entries of the filly Bright Morning have been refused.

Stables are beginning to arrive at both the Windsor and Kenilworth tracks from Kentucky.

George Zeigler wired that he would arrive from New York with five horses next week.

M. N. Macfarlan has been engaged to act as presiding steward and judge at a meeting to be given at Ashland, Ky., under the management of S. N. Holman. The meeting is scheduled to begin July 10 and continue for one week.

Starter George Miller has been doing excellent work at the barrier. He has succeeded in getting particularly good starts, especially in fields where there have been bad actors. He has not found it necessary to either fine or suspend a jockey so far during the meeting.

Jockey J. H. Burke left here last night for Kentucky to ride Supercargo and several other horses for the J. H. Rosseter stable.

Thirty-five stalls have been prepared at the Windsor track for the big string that W. Perkins is bringing up from Latonia. The Perkins horses are due here Monday morning.

Joe Rowan has been engaged to ride El Jesmar in the Canadian Derby.

Champlain and Wrangle came out of their last races sore.

Bob Smith has ordered two of the Miller starting gates. They will be shipped to the Smith farm at Newark, Del.

BROTHERS LEADING RIDERS

It is not often that three brothers are seen as leaders in the winning riding lists of a racing country. But in New Zealand this year A. Reed was leading up to May with 56 wins, while R. Reed was third with 32, and C. Reed fourth with 27½.

RAY JAY CAPTURES DWYER STAKES

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 6.—Ray Jay, the three-year-old son of Assagai—Romagne that races for the Quincy Stable, inscribed his name in the turf hall of fame at Aqueduct today when he was winner of the Dwyer Stakes in front of the Greentree Stable's Letterman, Glen Riddle Farm's Oceanic, Sanford Stud Farm's Serenader and J. S. Cosden's good filly Lady Baltimore. The victory was a clean-cut one and Ray Jay was taking up top weight of 117 pounds, while Serenader carried 109 and the others had 108 each in the saddle. At the finish Ray Jay was holding his company perfectly safe and was a length to the good, while Letterman beat Oceanic for second place by twice that distance. The race was worth $7,150 to the winner.

The day was an ideal one for the sport after the long siege of rain and the track was in good condition, though not yet fast. A big crowd was out to see the running of the Dwyer, and while the victory of Ray Jay came in the nature of a surprise the race was a thoroughly good one.

With little delay at the post Serenader, Lady Baltimore and Oceanic sprinted away from Ray Jay and Letterman and it was that sprinting that made possible the victory for the Quincy Stable colt.

Serenader had the inside position and Fairbrother sent him right along with the idea that he was good enough to make the other two stop when the rest of it would be easy.

SERENADER EARLY LEADER.

Lady Baltimore was in between the two colts and that kept Oceanic well out, but he was hanging on well and finally Lady Baltimore had enough and she dropped back. Then on the turn out of the backstretch Oceanic held to Serenader in resolute fashion, but Ray Jay was gradually improving his position and circling around in gallant fashion. Letterman was steering a course next to the inner rail and he too was making up ground.

It was not until nearing the eighth post in the stretch that Ray Jay had moved up until he was lapped on Oceanic and Serenader. There Fairbrother drew his whip on the Sanford colt, while Schuttinger also went to a drive on Oceanic. But Ray Jay was just beginning to run and Ponce had only to hand ride him to have him safely by the pair of them. Letterman continued to close along the rail and Ponce took no chances riding Ray Jay out fast and he was just a length before Letterman, as has already been told. Oceanic quit badly in the final pinch, but not as bad as Serenader. The big chestnut went all to pieces in that last eighth.

It was just one more race to further complicate the three-year-old analysis. Serenader in his two winning races appeared to be right up in the front division, but this was his test and he was found wanting. Morvich, Hea, Pillory and Snob II. have each had their day and not one of them has earned the right to the championship Olympus has failed, as have both Oceanic and Serenader, and now Whiskaway is the only colt of those that have been shown that seems to have the slightest chance to be champion of the year.

CAMPFIRE TO BETTER LUCK.

Second in importance to the Dwyer was an overnight handicap of five-eighths, for two-year-olds, that had been named the Campfire, in honor of Richard T. Wilson's Futurity winner. Better Luck from the Orleans Stable proved the winner under an excellent ride by Sande. Walter J. Salmon's Mark Twain raced into second place, but he only beat Joseph E. Widener's Raffles by a nose for that part of the money. The only other starter was John E. Madden's Best Love, and after showing a flash of speed she finished last.

Raffles left the post fast from his outside position and to the elbow of the course he was showing the way. There he was joined by Best Love and for a few strides she was showing the way. But Better Luck was not far away and when Sande found room he brought him through and an eighth from home it was apparent that he would win.

After her little flash of speed Best Love fell back badly, while Mark Twain came with a rush on the inside and was just up to snatch second place from Raffles, which was racing well toward the outside, having swerved over after making the elbow turn.

For an opening dash there was a mile for selling platers, to be ridden by apprentice jockeys that had not won three races. Only four went to the post and J. B. McKee's Crystal Ford was an easy winner from J. L. Holland's The Peruvian, with Samuel Louis' Halu third and Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords' Bravo last.

From a good start Catrone rushed The Peruvian into the lead and Crystal Ford went after him, with Halu showing the way to Bravo. Then on the turn out of the backstretch, when Legere tried to go through on the inside with Crystal Ford, he was pinched off by The Peruvian and dropped back badly.

Then when he made his second move in the stretch Crystal Ford easily raced by The Peruvian and was going away at the end. The Peruvian had no trouble in saving second place, though Shillick saved ground in the stretch with Halu and rode him intelligently.

E. Legere, who rode the winner, is a sixteen-year-old lad from Oakland, Cal., and this was his fourth mount in a race. He is under contract to James B. Smith and should make a good rider.

FIRM FRIEND A FIT HORSE.

Sandy McNaughton sent a fit horse to the post when he saddled Mrs. Louise Viau's Firm Friend for the three-quarters of the second race. He was good enough to go into an early lead and there was no time that he was threatened, to lead the Greentree Stable's Sedge home by four lengths Firm Friend started from the inside position and for a sixteenth Rainbow Boy held him, but it was not for far, and on the turn out of the backstretch Firm Friend was well clear and Sedge and Lally were going by Rainbow Boy.

For the rest of the race Sedge held to second place. In the stretch Lang bore out slightly with Firm Friend, but did not lose any of his advantage. Kummer made a better turn for home with Lally and an eighth from the finish he went to his whip. Lally responded gamely, but it was of no avail and he was beaten for second place.

Fred Burlew will not race the Benjamin Block horses or those that race under his own silks at the Yonkers meeting which opens Saturday. They will be reserved for Saratoga racing.

William Wallace will not send the horses of Frank J. Farrell to Yonkers for that meeting, preferring to make the trip by van should he decide to have a starter in any of the races.

The horses of the Sanford Stud Farm will also remain at Aqueduct and Hollie Hughes will transfer by van any starters he may have at Empire City.

MOVING OVER TO YONKERS.

There was a general exodus of horses from Belmont and Jamaica for the Yonkers course today and many stables made the long journey by van.

A. J. Joyner will not race any of the George D. Widener horses at Saratoga this year, but will remain at Belmont Park, where he will be busily engaged giving the yearlings their early lessons. Sixteen have reached him from Erdenheim, most of them the get of Trompe la Morte.

Louis Feustel made his first appearance at the race track after a long illness, and watched the races from a grandstand box. He will take over the horses of Samuel D. Riddle and August Belmont Monday. During his sickness they were in the care of A. J. Joyner.

BUTLER BILL KILLED—LOUISIANA RACING SAFE

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 6.—The Butler anti-racing bill was killed by the house of representatives this afternoon by a vote of 51 to 47. The measuse was advanced to third reading last night on the motion of Representative Fred Claiborne, author of the racing commission bill and a strong racing supporter.

Mr. Claiborne's motion, though it came in the nature of a surprise, is seen now to have been the result of a close poll of strength on the issue in the house. Seeing that they held the upper hand the racing adherents decided to dispose of the bill by a vote rather than kill it by continuing the filibuster.

The final fight on the bill began this morning when the house came together for its last day. The legislature adjourns at midnight tonight for a period of two years and racing in Louisiana is considered safe for that period at least.

FAVORITES PROVE DELUDERS

Even Distinction Fails Her Host of Confident Backers.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY.)

LATONIA, Ky., July 6.—For the second time in as many races Distinction, the popular McDowell filly, failed her large following. On this occasion her overthrow came in the mile handicap, in which her weight assignment was 126 pounds, and she was conceding four opponents lumps of weight, but she was held to be equal to the task and ruled an overwhelming choice, confidently backed. She might have succeeded at that had Broomster not been in the race. This colt set a dazzling pace and had Distinction under pressure to overhaul him. She ultimately did this after going a half mile, but the effort left her well spent, and she gave way steadily to the persistent Advocate in the stertch drive, and the Hewitt representative finally beat her to the finish by a good neck. When Broomster began tiring he did a thorough job, and Kinburn was an easing up third. Advocate raced in improved form over his last race. His light weight gave Owens a chance to ride him and the change from Connelly to the apprentice seemed favorable.

With the exception of the handicap and the opener the other dashes on the card brought out ordinary racers, with the fields large and unwieldy. It did not detract from the racing, however, and the attendance was again large. The pleasant weather continued and some fast time was recorded.. The opening dash was particularly interesting in that the crack filly Gentility was making her initial start of the year. She was an easy winner from Braedalbane and covered the three-quarters easily in 1:11. Had she been forced out she would have displaced the 1:10⅗ track record, held by High Cost. She scurried into the lead soon after the start and had a five lengths advantage after reaching the stretch and was easing up all through the last eighth.

PRINCE TII TII BEATEN.

Prince Tii Tii, carrying H. P. Whitney's colors, was given the most consideration in the dash for maiden two-year-olds, but he was beaten home by Victoire after a hard drive, with Lily M. in third place. There was a bad jam in the race just before the field reached the first turn and A. Wilson, who had the mount on Jack Frost, fell in a heap when his mount went down. He escaped serious injury, but was badly shaken up and had to cancel his remaining riding engagements.

The third race had another close finish and also brought about the downfall of a favorite. On this occasion it was Gentleman Jouett, a stablemate to Braedalbane. He finished in third place, being beaten out by Bojul and the outsider Magikon. The trio were driving hard at the finish.

First Ward had the call in the fourth race, a two-year-old dash, but the best he could do was to land in second place, beaten a nose by Dearie, which unexpectedly developed speed and staying ability this afternoon. At that, had not First Ward been ridden wide all the way he would have won. After the finish owner Pendergast lost his horse, H. Van Ry claiming First Ward for $1,900.

Opulent was the winner of the sixth race and it likewise found the sixth favorite bowled over. Loveliness, under hard riding, succeeded in taking second place from Mildred.

RIDING HONORS DIVIDED.

A. N. Akin had confident backing in the last race and he made good in easy style from Penwell, with Arravan in third place. The winner was given a good ride by C. Ralls, who shared with J. Owens in riding honors for the day, each having a pair of victories to his credit.

H. Booker, representing the Maple Heights race track, was here this afternoon passing out program books of the first seven days of racing to be held there. He reports that manager Sam Holman has instituted many improvements on the track. J. S. Wallace will serve as one of the officials there.

John C. Ferris will ship twenty horses, including those owned by George J. Long, to Windsor next Sunday. They will be raced on Canadian tracks until the resumption of fall racing in Kentucky.

J. McPherson will ship all the horses in his care to Lexington, to be rested during

LIVE BLUE GRASS NEWS

Marshall Brood Mares Are Shipped East—Man o' War's New Home.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 6.—Clem Pearce left here last night for Huntingdon Valley Farms, Meadowbrook, Pa., with eleven thoroughbred brood mares, nine of which have foals at heel. They are the property of Edward E. Marshall. Seven of these mares were purchased last winter from John E. Madden. The other four have been here for more than a year. They have all been mated with stallions in this vicinity.

Johnny Miller arrived here today from Amsterdam, New York, with a couple of brood mares, property of R. T. Wilson, which had been on a visit to John Sanford's Hurricana Stud and were returned to Kirklevington Stud.

Fred A. Forsythe, who since the dispersal of the Chinn and Forsythe stud of thoroughbrers a half dozen years ago, has been in the automobile business in Lexington, is said to be contemplating a return to the ranks of the breeders and is looking at farms in the vicinity of Lexington for that purpose.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer is in a deal for the yearling half brother to Exterminator. This colt, by George Smith, dam Fair Empress, is the property of C. W. Patterson, Jr., of Jamestown, N. Y., who is the fortunate owner of a suckling sister to Exterminator, it being now at Mere Hill Stud near here, with his venerable dam, which Mr. Patterson bought from E. Cary Ward of Georgetown, who had purchased her from "Dixie" Knight.

Julio Jorrin, suger grower and refiner of Havana, Cuba, was a visitor here today for the purpose of seeing the yearlings by Von Tromp and Troutbeck at Edward Cebrian's farm. Mr. Jorrin is a nephew of the president of Cuba and he is going in for racing. His colors, "all mauvein," are the colors his father used in Spain.

KILMER TO BUY FARM.

There is a rumor afloat here to the effect that Willis Sharpe Kilmer may purchase or lease a farm in the Blue Grass region.

Phil T. Chinn has returned from New York and says he intends to remain here until time to ship his fifty yearlings to Saratoga for the Fasig-Tipton sale.

Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield is making preparations to move Man o' War and Golden Broom and the mares and foals belonging to Samuel D. Riddle and Walter M. Jeffords from Hinata Farm to the Jefferds farm, which was purchased last winter from Col. Louis Lee Haggin. The Hinata Farm is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lebus and is under lease to former United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey, who, it is understood, intends to again sublease it, he having his horses now at his own Donegal Farm.

While here recently Walter J. Salmon of New York leased forty-five acres additional from William Petit, at whose place his horses now are.

A. E. Hunley, owner of Monietta Farm at Danville, was here today arranging for transportation of his yearlings by the Ben Brush horse Everest to Saratoga to be sold in August.

Winner—B. c, by North Star III.—Grail, by Atheling (trained by A. Simons; bred by Mr. Edward R. Bradley).

Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. BETTER LUCK was saved under restraint to the last eighth, then rushed into the lead and won as his rider pleased. MARK TWAIN began slowly, but saved ground on all the turns and, finishing fast, nosed RAFFLES out in the last stride. RAFFLES moved up swiftly at the eighth post, but tired near the end. BEST LOVE displayed an excellent burst of speed in leading for a quarter mile and was eased up when she tired.

Went to post at 3:51. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. RAY JAY was saved under stout restraint for the first seven-eighths, then moved up steadily when called on and passed OCEANIC, but was hard ridden to withstand LETTERMAN'S challenge. The latter was outpaced in the early running, but came fast through the stretch and made a resolute finish. OCEANIC was a forward contender throughout, but was much used in racing SERENADER into defeat and tired after taking the lead. SERENADER displayed excellent speed in setting a fast early pace, but tired and quit badly. LADY BALTIMORE ran prominently for three-quarters and also quit badly, but pulled up sound.

Overweights—Serenader, 1 pound.

Went to post at 4:17. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. AUTUMN BELLS gradually improved his position while racing on the outside and, finishing fast, outstayed VIGIL in the final drive. VIGIL, off forwardly, displayed much speed in racing ANONYMOUS and BROTHER PAT into defeat in the early running, but tired when called on for a final effort. ANONYMOUS set a fast early pace and was hard ridden for the entire race, but tired in the stretch. CHEAPSIDE began slowly and finished resolutely. BROTHER PAT showed early speed.

Equivalent booking odds—Sun Brae, 4135 to 100 straight, 1272½ to 100 place, 622½ to 100 show; Darnay, 95 to 100 place, 60 to 100 show; Rock Silk, 235 to 100 show.

Winner—Ch. g, by Sundridge—Sweet Briar, by St. Frusquin (trained by W. A. Crawford; bred in England by Mr. Willis Sharpe Kilmer).

Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. SUN BRAE quickly raced into a long lead and continued to increase his advantage to win easing up. DARNAY was shuffled about in the early running and closed a big gap when clear. ROCK SILK raced forwardly all the way. SPECTACULAR GIRL was cut off on the first turn, but closed up much ground. SEA WAY was sharply cut off at the half mile post. BRISK quit.

Scratched—63000 Volcanic, 95.

FIELD DAY FOR J. K. L. ROSS

FORT ERIE, Ont., July 6.—The J. K. L Ross Stable enjoyed a field day at Fort Erie this afternoon and accounted for three of the seven races. Hallucination started the day's triple by beating a band of Canadian-breds in decisive style, while Lilt followed with a victory in the two-year-old race and Diadema crowned the day by defeating the best of the sprinters stabled at the track.

The day's program was given over to claiming races and the best of the afternoon was the fourth, which was a dash of five and a half furlongs. There was but little delay in dispatching the field in this race and Diadema was away like a flash, setting a fast pace for her opponents to follow. Peter Piper and Dream of the Valley were the ones to attempt to keep up with the speedy daughter of Marathon, while the remainder of the field was closely bunched, with the exception of Despair, which began slowly and was soon outrun.

Rounding the turn into the stretch Claver allowed Diadema to draw away and she quickly increased her advantage, but was again taken under restraint through the final eighth. Elemental worked his way up through the field and took second place, while Despair came from a long way back and took the third portion of the purse from Buster.

BREAKS TRACK RECORD.

Lilt, which was a pronounced choice in the running of the third race and had but little difficulty in accounting for it, and in doing so established a new track record, clipping one-fifth of a second from the old mark.

Arendal was a good second, while Magic Reed was up in time to take the third portion of the purse. Claver restrained Lilt off the early pace established by Arendal, but rounding the elbow moved up with a rush and assuming the lead never left it in doubt.

Hallucination in starting the triple outran his opponents from the start and was returned victor by the widest margin of the afternoon over Anaprisa, with Mother Bunch third. The final time was 1:01.

Today's weather conditions were ideal and the crowd showed a vast increase over that of yesterday. The track was in fast condition and spirited racing prevailed. The public failed to center upon the different winners with any degree of accuracy, although several well-supported second choices were returned.

The longest priced winner of the day was Sun Brae, a brother to Sun Briar, which led from start to finish and netted a return of $84.70 for the usual $2 investment.

A dash for maiden jockeys found H. Fowler graduating from the ranks on the Thorncliffe Stable's Beljoy, which had a head margin over Musito, while the latter beat Mumbo Jumbo by a neck.

G. C. Milton this morning exchanged Pretender for the plater Helen Lucas.

Jockey T. Wilson and W. C. Weant severed connections this morning and the former departed for Devonshire Park.

R. D. Sampson departed for Maryland and Virginia today and will secure some material for a winter campaign at Tijuana.

J. W. Dayton will rest up at Fort Erie until resumption of racing at this point.

ST. ALWYNE GREAT BARGAIN

Some of the English horses bought for sires by Australians have been notable bargains. Absurd at $5,000 is one instance. Yellow Hand's sire, Rossendale, was another, and an even sharper case was that of St. Alwyne. Bought in England on behalf of W. and F. A. Moses for $275, Poitrel, one of his sons, alone won them $134,600 in stakes, and they have received many thousands for St. Alwyne's progeny. At the recent yearling sales at Randwick that sire's colt from Pretty Vlody headed the list at $8,500. When he was bought St. Alwyne was five years old, and he is now twenty-three.

SIGNOR TESIO AND ITALIAN DERBY

(BY SALVATOR.)

The Italian Derby ("Derby Reale") was run at Rome on Thursday, April 20, and resulted in a victory for the strong favorite, Melozzo da Forli, bred and owned by Signor Federico Tesio, and ridden by F. Regoli. There were eight starters and the winner came home five lengths in front, with Sigfrido second, four lengths ahead of Fiorello, third. The value of the race was 100,000 lire (pre-war $20,000), of which 75,000 went to the winner, 12,000 to the second horse, 6,000 to the third and 2,000 to the fourth, while 5,000 lire was also awarded to the winner's breeder. The distance was a mile and a half. The summary:

Cisalpine Stud's Sigfrido (Caprioli); 126 pounds	2
Cisalpine Stud's Fiorello (Blackburn); 126 pounds	3
Bellotta Stable's Moran (Orsini); 126 pounds ..	4

Agnano, Fridolino, Tortellino and Nerone also ran. Time, 2:39.

The totalizator paid 8.50 lire for 5 on the winner.

As a breeder of Derby winners Signor Tesio's record far surpasses anything else of the kind in Italy or any other country. He has now won the "Derby Reale" nine times in the last twelve years. He first scored with Guido Reni in 1911 and came back in 1912 with Rembrandt. Skipping 1913, he next won with Fausta in 1914 and Van Dyck in 1915. In 1916 he was unsuccessful, but 1917 saw his colors home first on Gianpietrina. There was another off year for him in 1918 and then came four successive victories, as follows—1919, Meissonier; 1920, Ghiberti; 1921, Michelangelo; 1922, Melozzo da Forli.

Another extraordinary thing in this series of successes is the fact that his last six winners have all been by the same sire, Signorino, which stallion also sired the winner of 1918, the Marchese Corsini's Carlone. The progeny of Signorino have, therefore, won the Derby in seven of its last eight renewals. There is also no record like this in any other country.

It need not be thought that these victories have been bloodless ones either. In the Derby for this year, as seen above, there were eight contenders and none of the Tesio winners have started in fields smaller than five, while on one occasion there were ten to face the starter. There were 122 nominations for this year's renewal.

It is further interesting to note that Fausta, the dam of Melozzo da Forli, was herself the Derby winner of 1914. She is probably the only mare on record to win a first-class event of this nature and then produce a winner. And she has produced not merely one but three, as Meisonnier (1919) and Michelangelo (1921) were also from her. Fausta was bred in England, but foaled in Italy. Her sire, Spearmint, won the English Derby of 1906 and was by the great Australian stallion Carbine. She, in turn, was from Madree, a mare bred in France and a daughter of the famous Flying Fox and Maskery, by Mask. This gives the ancestry of Melozzo da Forli a thoroughly international cast. Signorino, the sire of Melozzo, is a son of Best Man (he by Melton) and Signorina, the best daughter of St. Simon, she having won eleven races and $114,505 during her turf career and then produced Signorinetta, which in 1908 won both the English Derby and the Oaks. Here is a condensed tabulated pedigree of the winning colt:

MELOZZO DA FORLI (1919).	Signorino	Best Man	Melton......	Master Kildare

The "Derby Reale," which is run over the San Siro course at Rome, was established as far back as 1884 and the race this year was the thirty-ninth annual renewal. The following is the complete list of winners, which may be added by students of turf lore to the lists of various American Derby winners that recently appeared in Daily Racing Form:

*Walked over after a dead heat with Salvator Rosa.

No time was taken of the "Derby Reale" previous to 1904. Since then it has been carefully recorded. The fastest race of the series was that won by Meissonnier in 1919, he running the mile and a half in 2:31, a very fine performance. Gianpietrino had run in 2:32 in 1917, and in 1914 Fausta (dam of Both Meissonnier and this year's winner, as well as of Michelangelo, winner last year, as above noted) had set the mark at 2:33⅗.

F. Regoli has ridden the last four winners in succession and also scored in 1917, giving him five credits. This showing is unequaled by any other jockey's.

IS ILLINOIS A "HICK" STATE?

Whenever we go to Louisville or Latonia to view a big stake and there see high-class racing as conducted in Kentucky under state supervision, with well dressed, well behaved men and women as spectators, we wonder why we cannot have such racing in Illinois.

When we went to Michigan City Tuesday to see Bennie Leonard defend his lightweight title against Rocky Kansas and saw a well-conducted boxing bout with city police and members of the American Legion maintaining order, we wondered why we cannot have boxing in Illinois.

And as we think it over we wonder whether Illinois is a "hick" state, whether those of us who enjoy racing and boxing are a bunch of "hicks" for not raising our collective voices in such a vociferous demand for these sports that it would be heeded at Springfield.

Prominent among spectators at Kentucky's stake events, or at any attractive boxing program in the vicinity of Chicago, are members of the state legislature and members of the city council. They know what they like and they know what we like.

Again we ask, Is Illinois a "hick" state?—Harvey Woodruff in Chicago Tribune.

McLACHLAN TO TRY ENGLAND

W. H. McLachlan, perhaps the best of Australasian riders, has landed in England, following for a second time the footsteps of such colonial successes as Wootton, Carslake, H. Gray and Bullock. McLachlan leaves a great record in Australasia.

Cups have been his specialty, and included in these are Melbourne Cups on Prince Foote, Comedy King and Westcourt. In 1911 McLachlan went to England and rode for a portion of a season, his record being fourteen mounts for two wins, two seconds and two thirds. No doubt if he had remained there he would have done particularly well, but the weather and constant traveling from meeting to meeting were not to his liking. It remains to be seen whether he will take more kindly to English conditions this time.

ERROR IN FORT ERIE CHART

In race 63191 the $2 mutuel place price on Briand should read $3.45 instead of $3.40 as printed.

EMPIRE CITY STAKE DATES

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 6.—Prospects for a glorious meeting at Empire City this summer were never better and predictions are being made that it will be the banner one in the history of the Yonkers track. The order of the running of the stake races has been anonunced as follows:

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Mose Goldblatt sent his first batch of twelve horses to the Empire City track Wednesday afternoon, and will follow with twelve more next Sunday.

Jockey Marinelli returned East from Latonia, where he went to ride Stephen Pettit's Devastation in the Independence Handicap. Devastation has been shipped from Latonia to the Yonkers track.

Carroll Reid, of Houstonville, is owner of the colt by Fair Play, dam Loch Linnhe, by Lochryan, which is said to be one of the grandest yearlings in Kentucky. For a time last spring it was feared that Reid would not survive an operation which he underwent at Louisville, but he says he is feeling fine again.

GRAND STEEPLECHASE STORY

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

PARIS, France, June 18.—Had there been sunshine today I do not know what coulld possibly have been done with all the people who would have journeyed to the Auteuil course in the Bois de Boulogne for the first day of the Grand Semaine. Never have I seen such a crowd at any Grand Steeplechase, and the day was overcast and cold

The presence of Music Hall, and the confidence the public had in the ability of the favorite, Heros XII., perhaps was the reason for the banner attendance. It would be quite useless to say who were present; the world and his wife were there. Americans were everywhere about the lawn and the paddock. Prominent Americans present were J. E. Widener, Frank Hitchcock and Mrs. Duryea.

The former arrived in Paris late last evening, after freezing in England for the past week. He asked Jerry Welsh at the course today if Heros XII. would win, and received the universal answer that he would, with a qualifying contender in the young Sweeper II. horse, Corot, belonging to the Duc Decazes. They finished one-two, half a length apart.

Needless to say that both Mrs. Duryea and Mr. Widener were delighted with the race Corot put up. Sweeper II. will be a tremendous acquisition to the American breeding interests, and with the good mares he is certain to have sent to him in the States, he will soon be carrying the Broomstick blood once again to the fore.

HORSES IN FINE CONDITION.

Never have I seen a field for the big jumping classic so pleasing and in such wonderful conditions. I happened to be at the gate early in the afternoon when Heros XII. was taken out of his van, and the horse certainly felt himself. He looked a picture and he could not stay on the ground. In the paddock parade all showed the signs of capable trainers' attention.

The Italian mare did not please as much as she did last season. Corot showed all Charley Bariller's skill, and Music Hall showed that Willie Pratt had given him the best French "pension" since he arrived at Chantilly. They were away at the first attempt, and when the field passed the stand the Irish horse, Ben Cruchan, was in front. Parfrement seemed to be having trouble to place him, and the pace was a scorching one.

Nothing happened in the first turn of the course, and they raced for the water jump, which they all cleared without any mishaps, except Absidea, which fell. Down the dip, and out of sight on the lower turn, and when they came to the up and down some had parted company with the field. On the backstretch Parfrement and his Irish horse were still going great guns. Heros XII. was in the bunch, never at any time much worse off than sixth. The Decazes entry was in the rear bunch. Richebourg fell at the dirt bank, and Charley Hawkins, who was riding him, escaped a bad fall; the horse broke his leg. L'Yser fell at the big water the second time, Willie Head being unhurt.

SIMPRI BREAKS HIS LEG.

Simpri fell along the backstretch and also broke his leg, Henry Count thus losing two of his horses in the afternoon for Comte de la Cimera. When they came to the brook in the figure eight it could be seen that the race would be between Heros XII. and Corot. Music Hall was third, and old Hermon fourth. The last was out of contention, Music Hall was galloping strongly, but without any dash.

As soon as they jumped the brook Mitchell and Barre, on Heros XII. and Corot, put on speed, and they soon left Music Hall. In the run home these two were in close company, and over the last hurdle they came with the Decazes horse a half length in the lead. A fine finish all the way through the stretch resulted in Heros XII. being home a scant half-length to the good, Music Hall a poor third, and Hermon way back. Ben Cruchan pulled up.

The first four were the only ones completing the long journey. It was one of the best Grand steeplechases I have seen. The pace was a cracker. I learned afterward it was impossible to place Ben Cruchan owing to his just having recovered from an abscess in his mouth, and Parfrement had to ride him with a bit covered with cotton. He certainly went a pace, for over two miles and a half leading his field, and jumping like a good horse.

The Heros XII. victory was, of course, popular. He is a great favorite with the Auteuil crowd, and when I tell you his price was 7 to 10 in the big jumping race it shows the estimation the people hold him in.

The more I see of the English horses the more convinced I am that ours are better at the jumping game. They are better bred and better suited for our work over here. We put better horses at the business; but, in justice, one must say that we can better afford to do so, as the hurdle races and steeplechases are much more valuable in France.

Mitchell lost a stirrup coming over the last hurdle. One of the entries today was Rossignol, a half-breed, and he was running a creditable race until he fell at the brook. This is the first time, it is said, that a half-bred horse has started in the Auteuil classic.

The objet d'art for the big event was a massive soupiere in silver.

When it is all said and done Heros XII. is entitled to be put among the laureates of the Grand Steeplechase of Paris, for he is certainly one of the grandest jumpers France has produced. His victory was certainly deserved, for it was only in the last fifty feet that he overcame the young son of Sweeper II. in the long journey of over four miles.

the period of lay-off in Kentucky racing.

Today's visitors included Congressman Arthur B. Rouse of Kentucky and his guest, Congressman John McDuffie of Mobile, Ala.

Elaborate prepartions are under way for the reception of the monster attendance expected the closing day, when the Daniel Boone Handicap and the Latonia Oaks, each race having an added value of $10,000, are down for decision. Thibodaux, winner of the Latonia Derby, and Firebrand, victor in the Independence Handicap, will be starters in the Daniel Boone Handicap and the fastest fillies in these parts will try conclusions with Prudish in the Oaks.
